

Earl Harper

Mr. Harper has more than 20 years experience in contractor financial management and employee benefit program administration, with a concentration on construction and service contractor finance.

He acquired this experience during his second career after completing 24 years of military service, retiring from the Army as a Colonel in 1990.

His financial management background, in addition to his current position as Vice President at RMP Capital Corporation, includes service as Senior Vice President, Partners in Funding, Inc.; Vice President, New York Life Insurance Company/NYLife Administration Company; and National Business Sector Director for Government Contractor Administration, Century Business Services (CBIZ).

Mr. Harper is a graduate of the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle, PA, the Command and General Staff College, Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas and Iowa Wesleyan College, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

He is a life member and former national officer of the Veteran's of Foreign Wars, the Association of the United States Army, current president of the Central Texas Chapter of the Construction Financial Management Association, and the Central Texas Surety Association.

He and his wife, Anne, a Medical Technologist (ASCP) and Certified Pastry Chef, live in Austin, Texas.