

Kenneth R. Burton, Jr.

Kenneth R. Burton, Jr., a life member of Floyd E. Breedlove VFW Post 9182 in Katy was re-elected State Judge Advocate of the Department of Texas, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, at the 89th State Convention in June 2009. He has served consecutive terms as Department Judge Advocate since June 2002.

Burton, a VFW member since 1997, has served in many capacities on the Post District and Department level, including the office of State Inspector. He earned honors as Co-Captain of the All State Team of District Commanders during 2000-2001. Burton served the National Judge Advocate General during 2006-2007 and currently serves as Vice Chairman of the National VFW Legislative Committee.

Comrade Burton served in the U.S. Army Reserves from 1965 to 1989. He served in Korea with the 7th Infantry Division.

Born 1943 in Poteau, Oklahoma, Ken and his wife Anna Lee, who is a member of the Ladies Auxiliary, have three sons and six grandchildren and resides in Houston, Texas.

